

ExxonMobil Marine Product Supply

Fixed Fendering

In March 2012, Fendercare Marine was awarded a contract to supply and install cone fixed fendering panel systems at the ExxonMobil Ilha Terminal situated in Rio de Janeiro.

Who

ExxonMobil Chemical Ltd

Summary

The project was to supply fixed fender panel systems with full accessories.

Services Provided

- Full design package including full set of drawings
- Full project management
- Provision of two rubber cone fenders with installation and mounting sets. These were supplied with tall steel frontal panel, top rub rail, panel to rubber bolt sets, rubber to stool bolt sets, painted steel mounting stools, concrete to stool anchor rod sets, weight chains, tension chains, shear chains and chain anchors for mounting of system to existing concrete
- Two years worth of spare parts
- Steel anchor templates for installing the panel system onto the existing concrete structure
- Full documentation and certification provided and delivered in a presentation folder and on DVD

Benefits Delivered

- Provision of high quality cone fixed fendering panel systems
- Still maintaining a great relationship with ExxonMobil Chemical Brazil
- Service led approach

